-About four o'clock yesterday morning, while Sergeant Pat M'Elroy was standing in front of John Cosgrove's saloon, Main street, between Adams and Washington, he was struck on the head with an iron poker by Tom O'Donnell, ex-chi-f of police. We unders and the following to be the version of the origin of the difficulty: Late Monday night O'Donnell, who was intoxicated, saw Sergeant M'Eroy's horse in front of the Adoms street stationhouse, and untying the balter, mounted the animal and started to ride away. Sergeant M'Elroy ran out, and af er following O'Donnell a short distance, seized the reine, and as he jerked the horse the rider fell off Thereupon O'Donnell well violent and threstening language, which induced Sergeant M'Eiroy to slap him in the face. O'Donnell, however, continued his language, and again Sergeaut M'Elroy was forced to strike him a blow, and then returned to the stationhouse with his horse. About four c'clock in the morning, while at Cosgrove's salcon, O'Donnell approached and with a poker dealt him a heavy blow on the head. Sergeant M'Eiroy, although stunned by this unexpected and severe blow, drew his pistol and doubtless would have fired had not Officer Butler and others intervened and induced him to put up his weapon. O'Donnell was arrested. Recorder Winters yesterday placed him under a bond of two thousand dollars to appear before the crimiual court Sergeant M'Flroy received a

Extraordinary Opportunity for the Relief of the Afflicted. The surgeons of the National surgical institute, located at Indianapolis, Indiana, have finally yielded to the many urgent appeals to visit this city. Three or more of the surgeons will be at the Woreham house, Memphis, December 18th, 14th, 15th and 16th. They will have with them a great amount of surgical apparatus, appliances, etc., and competent assistants and workmen to change, fit and make such apparatus as may be required. They will come especially prepared to treat all surgical cases: Paralysis, all kinds of deformities of the face, spine and limbs, diseased joints, diseased eyes, catarrh, private liseases, piles, fistula, etc. On account of the great expense attending such a cip, they will not make another; thereore, all who wish to avail themselves of the sdvantages of the institute, without the long journey to Indianapolis, must do so at this time. No cases will be undertaken without a fair hope of relief. It is needless to say that the institution

The police and fire commissioners recommended the payment of two hundred and fifty dollars to Estes & Ellett, as compensation in the Foley in junction Passed second reading and referred to the city attorney.

H. W. Smith petitioned the board to return to him a fine imposed by Recorder Winters. Petition laid on table. Pillow & Pillow petitioned for a committee to confer with them regarding a settlement of taxes owed by Mrs. Guion on her property for 1873 and 1874. Aldermen Hillsman and Waldran were appointed to investigate the matter. The fire chief's requisition passed second reading. The report of the committee on accounts passed second reading. The bill of the city assessors passed second reading. The city engineer was ordered to put down a crossing at the corner of Jones avenue and Alabama street. A resolution, instructing the ordinance committee to draw up an ordinance, fixing the salary of the mayor for the next two years, was referred to the or linance committee. An explanation being asked by the register, as to the meaning of the report of the police and fire committee, recommending a credit of fifteen per cent. to the policemen and firemen, to cover the losses on their scrip, the report was reconsidered, and amended so as to allow the fifteen per cent, on the warrants issued, and not to add fifteen per cent. to their salary.

A resolution calling on the mayor to exilain why he has not made arrangements for supplying the hospital with bread, was adopted.

The Memphis and Charleston railroad company petitioned for the privilege of running a dummy engine on the Washington street railroad. The privilege of running the engine six months was granted, with an amendment requiring flagmen to be placed at as many points

COMMON COUNCIL. The common council convened its regular weekly meeting in the city hall at half past seven o'clock last night, President Zent occupying the chair. Councilman Cochran offered a resolution instructing the engineer to lay down plank roads on the flatboat levee not to exceed eight hundred dollars. Referred. On motion of Councilman Moores, the engineer was directed to lay down a plank crossing at the intersection of Alabama street and Jones avenue. Councilmen Hewe t, Fisher and Cochran were appointed a committee, to act with the committee from the board, in reference to the petition on past due

The council concurred with the board in the petitions, resolutions and ordinances reported, including the ordinance relative to the tax on merchants selling

A petition from the Memphie and Charleston railroad, asking permission to use a dummy-engine on the Wash-ington street track for aix months, was granted. The police and firemen's scrip resolution as amended by the board of aldermen was not concurred in. Mayor Losgue being invited to explain his reasons for not complying with a resolution relative to providing supplies for the hospital, said that he had often purchased bread for the institution, and only a short while ago gave an order on his own account. The matter had been called before the council, which referred the matter to the mayor. That very day he requested Dr. Thernton to ask the baker to continue furnishing bread to the hospital, as they would econ have the tax-books ready and would pay the bill. The council concurred in the amendment to the Memphis and Charleston railroad petition. Adjourned to seven o'clock on Friday night. JOINT SESSION. The board of aldermen and the common council convened in joint session, and the following message was received. after which the body dissolved:

MAYOR'S OFFICE, CITY HALL, MEMPHIS, TENN, December 7, 1875. Honorable Board of General Council: GENTLEMEN - Yesterday the city comp roller received from the county court cierk the tax-books lately ordered by your honorable body, and they are now in the hands of the tax-collector. The assesment on realty is $19 329 660, and on personalty $4,580,037; total, $23,-909,697. Upon this valuation, in accordance with the charter, if all parties are induced, through a sense of right and duty as citizens, or compelled to pay by law, there will be realized an it-come as follows: for judgments. 23 909 69 47,819 89 59,774 24 239,046 97 for sinking fund. For general purposes...

$382,555 13 To this amount is properly to be added a tax of $96,000 on merchants capital thus at our present low rate of taxation, and without taking into consideration the debt due to T. E. Brown, Esq., for which you have not yet fixed a rate, but I trust you will at an early day, that you may not be in contempt of court, there is a demand made upon the industry of the citizens to pay for self-government in this city of $478,555 13, which although very small in comparison to the tax levied in 1873, when the aggregate was $1,082,505 91. Nevertheless, the present rate is as high as the people can prosper under, and should be if possible, still further reduced, but certainly not increased. You, gentlemen, deserve well of your fellowcitizens for your efforts and co operation in reducing the expenses of the city. The seven months of 1874, say May and November, inclusive, were like the months for many years preceding, very expensive; the appropriations were $261,569 63, whereas, the appropriaing seven months of 1875, were but $136,946 90-a curtailing of $124,622 73. It is for this reason EVERY TUESDAY and SATURDAY at 5 that I feel justified in saying that you are entitled to credit, and I believe I hazard nothing in asserting that if your successors follow in the same economical course the expenses in the future need not exceed twenty thousand dollars per month, and possibly may not reach that amount. It s your duty, gentlemen, to set the good example under all of the provisions of forty-ninth and fift'e h corporate years, in accordance with section 36 of the charter, I regard it my duly to recom-mend to you to fix the salary at such a figure as to convince the creditors of the ity that extravagance will not be countenanced in any shape or form until, at least, the debts are paid. I therefore recommend to you an ordinance fixing the salary at two thousand dollars per annum. This sum will not deprive the city of the services of those whose efforts are appreciated, and at the same time it will be compensating the efficer for his time at a rate not often received outside of a public office, to say nothing of the honor conferred. At all events it is retrenchment; it is what the people demand, and it is the proper place to begin. There is another subject upon which, perhaps, I shou'd say a few words—the interest on the bonded debt. On the first day of this month the past-due interest was $431,795, for the payment of which there are past-due taxes, prior to Decem-ber first; on account of interest, $252,-459 57; from the purchasers of the city stock in the Memphis and Charleston railroad, $78 564 37; the levy just made out and returned to the tax-collector for (1875) the forty-eighth corporate year, $47,819 39-making a total tax due for the payment of interest of $378 843 33

951 67; and in this estimate is included hall and resumed business.

A requisition from the chief of police passed first reading. He wants mattresses and blankets for the stationinterest, whereby you saved last year $44,980 12, you will readily see that your assets are more than sufficient to pay the indebtedness; and, indeed, the same may be said of some other special taxes; hence I beseech you to keep within the limit fixed by the legislature, unless when positively directed by the courts. The floating debt, exclusive of that due for Nicolson and stone pavement, is $919,666 52; and the assets to liquidate this debt, principally taxes, including the levy for 1875, amount to $1,495,327 68, exclusive of the tax levied heretofore to pay for the Nicolson and stone pavement. Thus you see, that were you to compel delinquents to nav. the assets for the liquidation of the floating debt is $575 661 16 more than that due, hence I truet that you will see there is no good cause for increas-ing the rate of taxation for any purpose, after you have complied with the of the court in the case of T. E. Brown's judgment. Respectfully, JOHN LOAGUE, Mayor, which would only leave a deficit of $52 -

BERSALIERI ITALIANI.

Organization of an Italian Military Company-Names of the Officers Elected-Uniform and Arms-Forty-Five Members Enrolled.

Last night the organization of a military company, to be known as the Bersalieri Italiani, was perfected at a meeting of the members held in the old circuit courtroom, corner of Union and Second streets. The following officers were elected: Captain, Lorenzo Solari; first lieutenant, Giovanni Bell'uom; second-lieuterant, Betti Gallileo; ensigos, Giovanni Laurenzi and Davide Cordano; sergeants, Domenico Valpi and Silvio Cr stofani; corporale, P. A. Canale, Emilio Orselii, G. B Massei and Cesaro Laurenzi; treasurer, Guiseppe Laurenzi di Michele; secretary, A. B. Cereghine. Forty-five members have siready been enrolled, and within two weeks this number will be increased to seventy-five or eighty. The members are quite enthus a tic, and are confident that the ranks of the company will soon have a hundred or more. Last night the company resolved to have a fine and showy uniform, and sppointed a committee to secure an armory. General Hamby will supply the necessary arms and equipments, which will be received by Christmas. We congratulate the Italians upon the organization of a militory company, and have reason to be-lieve that it will be a creditable organization to the city of Memphis and the State of Tennessee.
